

20

to receive promotion or lose out entirely for the mere reason that their dispositions were such that others could not work with them in peace. It often happens that a mediocre person far out steps the shining star because of his ability to co-operate.

We need accuracy, we need speed, we need intelligence in our work but above all we need the spirit of helpfulness and tolerance. In place of friction let us have friendliness, in place of anger let us have amiability, in place of hostility let us have harmony. Then in truth will 1199 be, as 1185 puts it, "More Than A Place To Work."

J. Hennacy

---

SPEAK KINDLY

How many days would lose their gloom,
How many nights their sorrow,
If we would wait to criticize
Until a kindlier morrow.
A night oft changes hate to love:
A taunt, if left unspoken,
May change to sympathy and cheer,
And keep a heart unbroken.

-----

How many tears we would be spared,
How many hours of sadness,
If men would utter only good,
And speak but love and gladness.
A word may break a lonely heart,
Or save a life that's broken;
Then let all evil words be stilled,
And only good be spoken.

Selected.

---